diseased peculiar to the throat and lungs. For such alments, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, prompily administered, affords speedy relief and cure.

As a remedy for Whouping Cough, with which many of our children were afflicted, we used, during the past winter, with much satisfaction, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For this affection, we consider this preparation the most chicacious of all the medicines which have come to our knowledge. Mary Paykhurst, Preceptress, Home for Little Wandarers, Doncastor, Md.

Wanderers, Doncaster, Md.

My children have been peculiarly subject to attacks of Croup, and I failed to find any effective remedy until I commenced administering Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This preparation relieves the difficulty of breathing and invariably cures the complaint.—David G. Starts, Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y. Chatham, Columbia Co., N. I.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Peeteral in my family for many years, and have found it especially valuable in Whooping Gough. This medicine allays allirritation, prevents inflammation to on

POULTRY DEPARTMENT. this display has year and not extractive is half as much more poultry in the lower is half as much more poultry in the lower part of the structure. When the bers, geese, ducks and pigeons are all addressing the audience the uproar is deafening. People never tire of looking at the doves, pigeons and owis, while the immense white Embden geese stand second in attractiveness. There will probably for a number of years not be a show of poultry in Maine more extensive and valuable. Lack of space prevents any descriptive notice of this great display, but our reporters will present to the readers of the Willow a correct list of the birds as they were seen by the public yesterday. It will be seen that the names of some exhibitors appear twice with the same variety of fowl, but in these cases the birds were shown in different parts of the building.

To Complete the Ticket. Next Tuesday exening the Republicans of Bangor ill meet in caucus to select .. three candid tes for Representatives in the next Legisla ure. This will complete our ticket and the action of the caucus should be sucl as to add strength to the nominations a read made. As we have before stated the Democrats propose to make a particular contest on the Legislative and County tickets and it behooves the Republicans in this sty to be on guard. Let the general cauces be largely attended so that the nominations may represent the wishes of the party in the fullest sense of the word. Bauger wants to continue a solid Republican delegation in the Legislature and all that is necessary to secure such a result is a little earnest effort on the part of our friends. Every Republican voter should make it a point to be at home on election day and deposit a ballot in the in-terest of good Government. Remembe that a United States Schator is to be chosen rext winter and as Democratic success would mean placing in the Scuate a man favorable to the Democratic policy of free trade, angor Republicans should emphasize their belief in the protective system by rolling up a good round maority for the whole ticket.

The Oover Meeting. The Republicans of Piscataquis had a splendid meetair in Pover yesterday. The solid representative citizens from all sections of the county were out in force, and listened with leep interest to the cancid discussion lot political questions by Mr. Blaine and G n. Gibson Such meetings as those at Loulton and Dover have a grand effect upon the people. They are aroused to the importance of the pending campaign and the necessity for active work on the part of judividual members of the party. Every man can do something toward the success of the party, and from the report of the outlook in that sec-tion it would seem that the Republicans of Piscat iquis (ounty are taking hold with a

The Loulton Meeting.

Correspondence of the Whig and Courter .
The Republican mass meeting here Tuesday which was addressed by Mr. Blaine, Gen. Bibson and Mr. Boutelle was one of the grandest meetings ever held in this county and cannot fail to have a telling effect on the movements of the Democratic party in this section. Long before neon people began pouring in from differ ent towns and settlements from all parts of the county, many coming as far as sixty. whiles. Rais began falling about noon when it was ound necessary to ho'd the meeting in it e Opera House, and by one o'clock the large hall was crowded to overflowing and many were unable to gair admitta ice. The train which was to bring the distinguished speakers was one hour late, and it was near four o'clock when the meeting was called to order by Hon-Albert A. Farleigh who called the Hon.

Eben Wood sury to the chair. The first speaker was the orator from Ohio, Gen. Gibson whi in a most eloquent manner reviewed the doings of the Democratic party for the last twenty-five years and in a convincing tanner showed the importance of and our pencits of a protective tariff. Mr. Linine collowed in the same course of argument a- to a protective tariff and then proceeded to discuss the third party movement. The were a number of probibi-Monists present and no one but Mr. Blaine could set fo th in so convincing a manner the cunning of the Democratic party in the manipulations with this third party movement. He reviewed the temperance legislation of the two parties, showing that the Republican party had been the consistent t mperance party.

when Mr. i laine closed his able speech. yet the people were eager to hear from Congressman Boutelle. He was loudly called for and after being introduced he proceeded to discuss the proceedings of the Demograts in the last House of Reptesentatives and showed how the party was divided u jon great and important questions, and how their great pretensions have come to naught. He also very ably pointed out the dangers which might follow by leaving the Republican party and voting with the Prohibitionists. Upon the whole the effect of this meeting will have a most disastrious effect upon the third party meyement in this county. Every-

Mr. Smith's Will.

Mr. Augustus Maw was such a sunrt young gentleman that his friends expected great things of him. There are some persons who possess the knick of inspiring confidence without doing anything to warrant it. Augustus had failed to distinguish himself during his scholastic earlier, yet those who knew thim believed in him self. He was a brisk, bustling inthe youth, with a high falsetto voice and a consequential manner. He had worn an eyeglass and high shirt-collais from an early age, and at seventeen he is would have argued theology with an Art hishop, or discussed politics with a Prime Minister. When the time artived for choosing a profession, Augustus unbestratingly decided in favor of the britten.

gredients to the success of his scheme. Now, Augustus was one of those enterprising youths—there are many of them about—who are in too great a hurry to make a fortune to be at le to give time to honest drudgery. He did not exactly abandon the hope of leaching the wools sack, but he resolved no, to fritter away his abilities in istriving too much for it. He would keep to in yew as something worth contending for, but he felt/that, meanwhile, it would be as well not to lose any opportunity of advancement in other

"There is nothing the matter with the instruct ons!" exclaimed Mr. Retainer, starting at Augustus.
"I da essay not, as far as the solicitors are conserned—" Augustus blarted out.
"One of the oldest and nost respectable in ms in London," interrupted Mr. Recamer indigenantly. "What on earth are you driving at?"
"Well, I mean, do you think that the testator has all the property to leave that he speaks of?" said Augustus, in desperation. "I have heard of cases of a man making a sham will."
"Not through a firm like Tape & Parchment," cried Mr. Retainer, quite scancalized. What can have put such an icen into your head?"
"Nothing, except that the testator lives in Canaden Town—Hilldrop-crescent." "Nothing, except that the testator lives in Canden Town—Hildrop-crescent I know Hildrop-crescent stightly," added Augustus hastily. "They are compressed years and the neighborhood s not fashionable.
